

ABSTRACT

It is intended to provide an angiogenesis inducer comprising fibrin which is safe to a living body. The 5 angiogenesis inducer is characterized by being capable of safely inducing angiogenesis when administered to a living body, which makes it possible to achieve functional regeneration of living tissues or organs suffering from dysfunction or malfunction.